Camp Staff

Stephanie Feulner Camp Coach

Stephanie Feulner, Executive Director of Inland Volleyball Club, graduated from Bishop Moore High School in Orlando where she played volleyball and soccer. Stephanie led the Hornets to 2 State Soccer Championships, which were the first for girls' soccer in the school's history. She then went to the University of North Florida on a volleyball scholarship where she earned several accolades including All-Conference First Team honors. During her tenure at UNF the Ospreys earned a spot in the NAIA National Championships her freshman year. Stephanie then transferred to Saint Louis University to play Division I volleyball. While at SLU she helped to lead the Billikens to the NCAA National Invitational while earning All-Conference First Team honors and AVCA National Athlete of the Week. As a senior Stephanie was selected SLU Outstanding Female Athlete of the Year. She served as Assistant Volleyball Coach for Georgia State University in 1997, and served as Assistant Coach for Timber Creek High School for three seasons. Inducted into the Bishop Moore Hall of Fame in 1996, Stephanie was one of the youngest inductees in the school's history. She was also inducted into the Saint Louis University Hall of Fame in 2005. Stephanie has several years of experience coaching club volleyball and soccer, as well as over 18 years experience working for non-profits such as the Central Florida YMCA and The Center For Drug-Free Living, Inc.

Mila Serrano Camp Coach

Mila Serrano, Director for Inland Volleyball Club, was the Assistant Volleyball Coach for Orangewood Christian for 7 years. The Lady Rams captured 2 state championships and 2 state runner up titles during Mila's tenure there. Mila is a CAP I level certified coach and provides private lessons to players. She has many years experience coaching club. Mila coached the 16-Elite team during the 2009 club season and oversees the North Division of Inland.

Allan Rubenstein Camp Director

Allan Rubenstein, Director for Inland Volleyball Club, has been the Head Volleyball Coach for Timber Creek High School for 6 years. Allan led Timber Creek to win the 2008 Girls' 6A State Championship. The girls' team was also the State Runner-up two seasons ago, and the boys' program has reached the state finals twice. He was named Coach of the Year five different times. Allan has 16 years experience coaching club volleyball and has also coached at the collegiate level when he served as Assistant Coach for the Rollins College Tars and the University of Tulsa. His playing experience includes a collegiate men's club team, many USAV adult teams, and numerous beach tournaments. Allan coached the 18-Elite team during the 2009 club season, oversees operations for the East Division of Inland and also serves as the College Recruiting Coordinator for Inland. He lives in Orlando, Florida with his wife Stephanie and their children.
